- The Broker shall be entitled to identify the Client and require proving of identity of Clients or persons acting on behalf of Clients. The Broker may keep records of the data acquired in this way within the extent set by generally binding legal regulations.

B. SPECIAL PART

4. Agreement

- Based on the Agreement the Broker shall be obliged to arrange the Account for the Client and to arrange in his own name for the Client to the Client's account purchase or sale of S/FS based on the Client's Instructions, or carry out activities to meet such a result. The Client shall be obliged to pay fees and provide all necessary assistance to the Broker. The amount of the charge, which the Client shall be obliged to pay the Broker for activities based on the Agreement, is agreed upon in the Service Charge List. The Broker carries out activities based on the Agreement in accordance with Investment conditions and parameters of the relevant securities market and financial instruments market determined on the basis of actual technical and organisational rules effective for securities market and for relevant financial instruments.
- Formation of the Agreement
 - The contractual relationship between the Broker and the Client begins from the moment of the acceptance of the Application by the Broker. The Broker accepts the Application after fulfilment of the Terms of acceptance for NEW Lifestyle Investment Account Application Form.
- Termination of the Agreement
 - The Client is entitled to terminate the Agreement at any time and for any reason by written request sent to the Broker. The Broker cancels the Client's Account after the 30 day notice period has ended. The condition for termination of the Contract by the Client without any penalties or fees in the event of the Savings Investment Type is the elapse of the Investment period and in the event of the Retirement Investment Type is the elapse of both the Investment period and Draw-down Period agreed upon in the Agreement, whereby during the Investment period the Client invested into the Account a sum at least equal to the Total Investment referred to in the Agreement. Failure to observe the Investment conditions by the Client is considered as a breach of contractual conditions.
 - All non-executed Instructions shall be terminated on the day of termination of the Agreement shall terminate. However, termination of the Agreement does not affect the Instruction, which under the Business Conditions cannot be changed or terminated, whereby the provisions of these Business Conditions shall apply in the implementation of such Instruction and also the settlement of the rights and obligations of the Broker and the Client.
 - If not agreed in writing otherwise, the notice period for termination of the Agreement by the Broker is three calendar days. If not otherwise agreed in writing, the notice period for termination of the Agreement by the Client is one calendar month. If the Client, on the day of termination of the Agreement by the Client's notice, has not settled all obligations against the Broker, the notice period shall be extended until such time that they are settled in full.
 - The Broker is entitled to terminate the Agreement if the value of the Account falls below an amount equal to the sum of 10% of the Total investment referred to in the Agreement or EUR 50, USD 50 or GBP 50, or is inactive for longer than 12 months.
 - The Broker is entitled to terminate the Agreement if the Client made a serious breach of these Business Conditions, or if the Client misled the Broker by providing false statements or declarations, or if the Client did not provide the compulsory information required by the Broker based on these Business Conditions, Agreement or other documents.
 - The Broker shall, following the termination of the Account, sell S or FS held on the Account after the 30-day notice period has ended. The Broker shall reimburse the funds from sale of S or FS held on the Account only after receipt of funds from the issuers of the S or FS in question.
- Withdrawal from Account
 - The Client shall be entitled to withdraw a portion of funds from the Account before the end of the Investment period; a withdrawal can be made after the elapse of the first five years of the Investment Period.
 - The minimum amount of withdrawal of funds from the Account before the expiry of Investment period is EUR 300, USD 300, GBP 300. The value of the Account, however, shall not fall below an amount equal to 10% of the Total investment amount.
- Reaching the Total investment amount and expiry of the Investment period – Savings investment type
 - After reaching the Total investment amount and the expiry of the Investment period, the Client shall have the option to choose one of the three following procedures:
 - Continue to invest in accordance with selected parameters;
 - Regular payment of funds;
 - Withdrawal of the Total investment amount.
 - Should the Client fail to provide information to the Broker in accordance with point 4.5.1., the Broker shall proceed as if the Client had chosen the procedure a) of point 4.5.1.
 - Should the Client not reach the Total investment amount on the day of expiry of the Investment period, the Client shall have an option to choose:
 - withdrawal of funds in such amount that the value of the Account by this withdrawal does not fall below an amount equal to 10% of the Total investment as stated in the Agreement
 - withdrawal of Account balance, after deduction of a charge in accordance with the Service Charge List.
 - Shall the Client choose the option b) in point 4.5.3., the Broker instructs the sale of S or FS held on the Account after the end of the 30-day notice period. The Broker shall disburse funds from the sale of S or FS held on the Account after receipt of funds from the issuers of those S or FS in question.
- Reaching the Total investment amount and expiry of the Investment period – Retirement investment type
 - After reaching the Total investment amount and the expiry of the Investment period (i.e. reaching the Retirement Date), the Client shall have the option to choose one of the two following procedures:
 - Receipt of regular payments from the Broker during the Draw-down Period, from Retirement Date until age 85, paid out quarterly. Balance of Account remaining at age 85 shall be paid out as a lump sum to the Client;
 - Withdrawal of the Total investment amount, subject to a charge in accordance with the Service Charge List.
 - Should the Client fail to provide information to the Broker in accordance with point 4.6.1., the Broker shall proceed as if the Client had chosen the procedure a) of point 4.6.1.
 - Should the Client not reach the Total investment amount on the day of expiry of the Investment period, the Client shall have an option to choose:
 - withdrawal of funds in such amount that the value of the Account by this withdrawal does not fall below an amount equal to 10% of the Total investment as stated in the Agreement
 - withdrawal of Account balance, after deduction of a charge in accordance with the Service Charge List.
 - Shall the Client choose the option b) in point 4.6.3., the Broker instructs the sale of S or FS held on the Account after the end of the 30-day notice period. The Broker shall disburse funds from the sale of S or FS held on the Account after receipt of funds from the issuers of those S or FS in question.
- Account
 - The Account consists of:
 - All funds transferred by the Client to the Account, under the assumption that the money transfer order for the funds transfer shall contain Authentication data and birth number or any other equivalent identification of the Client; if it is obvious, or if there is doubt or the Broker shall come to a conclusion that some data on the Client's money transfer order for the funds transfer does not comply with the Agreement, the Broker shall be at his own discretion entitled to,
 - credit such funds in favour of an Account number of which is identical to the Authentication data stated on the money transfer order, if the birth number or any other equivalent identification is wrong or is missing,
 - credit such funds in favour of Account of the Client whose birth number or other equivalent identification as a unique identifier is identical to birth number or other equivalent identification stated on the money transfer order, if the Authentication data is wrong or missing,
 - credit such funds to the Account, if it is obvious in all circumstances that the Authentication data and birth number or other equivalent identification of the Client were exchanged,
 - all funds resulting from the Client's investment, including any revenues and performance obtained in connection with S, FS and other financial instruments being part of the Account;
 - all S, FS and other financial instruments whose purchase was supplied by the Broker based on the Instructions of the Client.
 - The Broker shall be entitled to:
 - Use funds which are part of the Account for the purposes of providing Services, in accordance with the Investment conditions and Service Charge List.

- b) Use S, FS as well as financial instruments being part of the Account for the purposes of providing Services, in accordance with the Investment conditions and Service Charge List,
- c) Use any payments, including any revenues and performance resulting from providing Services, for the purposes of providing Services in accordance with the Investment conditions and Service Charge List, unless the Broker and Client agree in writing otherwise,
- d) hold a fraction of the Client's Investment Account up to 3% of the Total Investment amount as cash money, except of cases when the funds are designated for re-allocation into other financial instruments.
- 4.7.3. In the event of a Joint Account of two Clients that selected the Retirement investment type, age of the Client 1 is taken into account for the purposes of determination of the Retirement Date and payment of the Account balance in Draw-down Period.

5. Instructions

- 5.1. The Instruction, scope of which is a request for carrying out purchase or sale of S or FS, shall be submitted by the Client in writing on a form determined by the Broker, unless the Business Conditions or the Agreement stipulate otherwise. Shall the Client authorize another entity for submitting Instructions pursuant to the Agreement in his/her name, the Instructions shall be submitted by the authorized entity, in such case the investment allocation shall be carried out via Instruction submitted by such entity. The Client shall attach to the Instruction documents as stipulated by the Securities Act, other legal regulations, Business Conditions or Agreement. The Broker shall have the right for provision of all documents necessary to carry out the purchase or sale, otherwise the Broker shall be entitled to refuse provision of the Services. The Instruction must be legible, clear and understandable, may not be crossed out, transcribed, in any way altered, or otherwise modified. Any changes in S or FS listed in the Instruction are submitted by the Client as a new Instruction. The Client may also place the Instruction by electronic mail or facsimile transmission, i.e. sending an e-mail to the address administration@cornhill.com or sending fax message to phone number 0042123222699. When placing the Instruction through an e-mail or facsimile transmission the report shall also include a copy of the duly completed Instruction in accordance with a template specified by the Publication signed by the Client and including the Authentication data. The Broker shall in reasonable cases reserve the right not to accept the Instruction by e-mail or facsimile transmission, about which the Broker shall be obliged to inform the Client immediately. The Instruction shall bind the Broker from the moment of its due delivery to the Broker. The requirements of the Instruction are determined by Publication. The Broker shall reserve the right to refuse an Instruction that does not contain all requirements in accordance with the template Instruction determined by Publication. In the event of a refusal of the Instruction the Broker shall inform the Client of such fact in writing within 5 working days.
- 5.2. The Broker shall carry out his work with due professional care. The Client acknowledges that compliance with professional care is not violated in an event when after executing the Instruction, the price of the S or FS in question changes on the relevant market. The Client is aware that compliance with professional care is not violated in the event of a selection of S or FS which are not appropriate for the Client classified as a Non-professional client, if the Client insists on the provision of purchase of S or FS even after having received the Broker's recommendation.

5.3. Execution of the Instruction

- 5.3.1. Should the Instruction fail to contain all requirements stipulated by the Business Conditions, the Broker shall not be obliged to execute such Instruction, however, at his own discretion he shall be entitled to execute such Instruction in compliance with the following provisions of the Business Conditions.
- 5.3.2. Should the Client in the Instruction fail to determine a market where the Broker shall arrange for the S or FS purchase or sale and the Broker decides to execute the Instruction in accordance with point 5.4.1. of Business Conditions, the Broker shall be entitled to execute the Instruction for S or FS purchase or sale at any regulated market, multilateral business system as well as outside the regulated market or outside the multilateral business system in the event that the Client expressly agrees with such activity by the Broker. In such a case the Broker shall proceed in accordance with his Strategy of Instruction Execution.
- 5.3.3. The Client shall be entitled to change the Instruction providing (i) it is technically possible, (ii) the rules and practices of the regulated market or multilateral business system shall enable it, (iii) the Broker has not executed the Instruction yet, not even partially and (iv) the Broker has expressed his consent therewith. With the consent of the Broker the Client may change the Instruction if the Instruction was executed partially and the rules and practices of the market allow for it. The change in Instruction shall be done by the Client by submitting a new Instruction with changed requirements, unless the Agreement provides for otherwise. For the Instruction change the provisions of point 5.1. of Business Conditions shall apply accordingly.
- 5.3.4. The Broker shall confirm in writing acceptance of the Instruction based on the Client's written request.
- 5.3.5. The Broker shall be entitled to refuse the Instruction accepted, the Instruction cancellation, Change of Instruction if it is incomplete, incorrect, unprecise, unclear, unexecutable, requiring other Service than S or FS purchase or sale especially if the Instruction, change of Instruction or cancellation of Instruction fails to meet the requirements of point 5.1. of Business Conditions. The Broker shall not be obliged to execute the Instruction in person and he may appoint a third person to execute it. The Broker may deviate from the Instruction if necessary in the Client's interest and if the Broker cannot obtain the Client's consent with such procedure in time.
- 5.3.6. The Instruction and its contents must not be in conflict with the Securities Act, other generally binding legal regulations, and resolutions of authorities binding for the Client or the Broker.
- 5.3.7. Instruction, change of instruction, Instruction cancellation shall be part of the Agreement. The Instruction change and cancellation shall not affect the validity of the Agreement.
- 5.3.8. The Broker executes the Instructions in accordance with the Strategy of Instruction Execution determined by Publication.
- 5.3.9. The Broker is not obliged to verify the correctness, accuracy or completeness of the data which the Client stated in the Instruction.

5.4. Provision of S or FS purchase

- 5.4.1. The Broker provides the purchase of S or FS, i.e. invests the Client's funds on a regular basis once a month, usually after the 15th calendar day of the month. The Broker is entitled to not execute the Instruction in the event that the funds sent by the Client to the Account are not assigned to the Account by the 15th day of the month at the latest and that following this the Instruction will not be realised by the Broker until the following calendar month.
- 5.4.2. The Broker shall invest the Client's funds less the fees specified in the Service Charge List. Client's fees are deducted by the Broker from the amount invested in accordance with the method of payment specified in the Instruction.
- 5.4.3. The Broker shall procure the purchase of S or FS under the conditions set out in these Business Conditions.
- 5.4.4. The Client agrees that certain S or FS may be in the co-ownership of several of the Broker's Clients. In this case the co-ownership share of the Client of S or FS reflects the extent to which the Client is involved in claims and liabilities related to such S or FS, particularly fees, costs, margins, earnings and losses.
- 5.4.5. If the Broker provides for the Client purchase of Paper S/FS which have already been issued, such Paper S/FS becomes the Client's property on the date of the delivery to the Broker. Unless otherwise agreed, or if these Business Conditions do not provide otherwise, the Broker is obliged to transmit, without delay, Paper S/FS, the purchase of which he procured, to the Client and at the same time take all legal action necessary to ensure the Paper S/FS, the purchase of which he procured, becomes the property of the Client, if required by the Securities Act or specific legislation (e.g. endorsement).
- 5.4.6. If the Broker provides to the Client a purchase of Paper S/FS from the issuer when issuing by the issuer, such Paper S/FS becomes the Client's property on the date of delivery to the Broker. The Broker will be registered as the first owner of the Paper S/FS. For Paper S/FS on series will be issued on the following series of the Broker. Unless agreed otherwise, or if these Business Conditions do not provide otherwise, the Broker shall be obliged to transmit to the Client promptly the Paper S/FS, the purchase of which he procured for the Client, and to take all legal action necessary to ensure that the Paper S/FS becomes the property of the Client, if required by the Securities Act or specific legislation (e.g. endorsement).
- 5.4.7. If the Broker purchases Book-entry S/FS for the client, the Book-entry S/FS which the Broker has procured becomes the property of the Client at the moment of their registration FS on the Account of S/FS. Unless otherwise agreed, or if these Business Conditions do not provide otherwise, the Broker shall be obliged to assign the Book-entry S/FS which he procured to the account of the holder of the securities of the Broker and then promptly transfer them to the Account of S/FS.
- 5.4.8. In accordance with the Securities Act the Broker shall report to the Client information on the execution of instructions annually. The Broker is authorized to provide the Client with information on executed instructions also via the Broker's electronic service, with which the Client agrees.

5.5. Provision of S/FS sale

- 5.5.1. Should the Broker provide for the sale of the Paper S/FS for the Client, the Client shall be obliged to submit the Paper S/FS to the Broker together with the Instruction. The Paper S/FS shall remain the Client's property until acquired by the third party. The Broker shall be entitled to carry out all legal acts as required by the Securities Act and special legal regulations inevitable for the transfer of Paper S/FS, the sale of which is provided, for the benefit of a third person. The Client, by signing the Agreement, grants the Broker the power of attorney to the extent necessary for carrying out legal acts as stated in the previous sentence above. In the event of failure of the S/FS sale or expiry of the obligation period of the Instruction, the Broker shall return the Paper S/FS to the Client without undue delay; the same shall also apply in the case that the Broker executes the Instruction only partially, and in such an event he shall return the unsold Paper S/FS to the Client.

- 5.5.2. Sale of the Book-entry S/FS which the Broker shall arrange shall remain the Client's property until acquired by the third party.
- 5.5.3. Should the Client fail to pay the Broker for the receivables incurred in relation to the provision of S or FS sale, the Broker shall be entitled to set off all receivables resulting from the S or FS sale with the receivables of the Client against the Broker for the payment of S or FS purchase price, the sale of which the Broker arranged.
- 5.5.4. For the provision of S or FS sale, the provisions of point 5.1. of Business Conditions shall apply accordingly.
- 5.6. Bulk Instruction
- 5.6.1. The Broker shall be entitled to join the Instruction of the Client with identical Instructions of other Clients and to execute such Instructions jointly.
- 5.6.2. The Broker shall join Clients' Instructions in a way that it is unlikely that such conjunction of Instructions will be generally disadvantageous to any Client, whose Instructions are to be executed jointly.
- 5.6.3. The Broker shall inform each Client whose Instruction is to be executed jointly in the event that impact of such conjunction with regard to a relevant Instruction may be disadvantageous to the Client.
- 5.6.4. The Broker has established and shall effectively observe allocation strategy of Instructions that ensures fair allocation of joint Instructions and transactions in sufficiently precise terms and conditions for the treatment of partially executed instructions.
- 5.6.5. If a partial Bulk Instruction is to be executed, subsequent allocation takes place in accordance with the Strategy of Instruction Allocation.

6. Changes in allocation (Re-allocation)

- 6.1. Unless stated otherwise in the Business Conditions, or unless otherwise agreed in the Agreement, the Client shall make a request scope of which is re-allocation in writing on a form determined by the Broker. Shall the Client authorize another entity for submitting Instructions pursuant to the Agreement in his/her name, the Instructions shall be submitted by the authorized entity. The Client shall attach to the Instruction for Re-allocation documents as stipulated by the Securities Act, other legal regulations, Business Conditions or Agreement. The Broker shall have the right for provision of all documents necessary to carry out the Service, otherwise the Broker shall be entitled to refuse provision of the Services. The Instruction must be legible, clear and understandable, may not be crossed out, transcribed, in any way altered, or otherwise modified.
- 6.2. The Broker shall have the right to refuse an Instruction for Re-allocation which is not submitted on the form determined by the Broker and/or if it does not meet the requirements according to point 5.1. The Broker shall not be liable for damage caused by non-performance of Services for this reason.
- 6.3. To execute the re-allocation apply the provisions of points 5.1 up to 5.5. of the Business Conditions shall apply.
- 6.4. The Client shall be obliged to ensure that the Instruction for Re-allocation, which is submitted by the Client to the Broker:
- is precise, clear, correct and accurate,
 - was received by the Broker (eventually confirmed in a manner agreed upon between the Broker and the Client),
 - is in accordance with the provisions of the relevant legislation,
 - is not in conflict with the principles of fair trade or good manners.
- 6.5. The Broker executes re-allocation in that order, in which the Instructions for Re-allocation were received.
- 6.6. The Broker executes re-allocation within a reasonable time – according to their nature and complexity, in accordance with the relevant trade practice, generally applicable legislation and depending on the functionality of the Broker's technical system, regulated markets or other markets. The Broker shall be entitled to set exceptional conditions in the delivery and implementation of changes in allocation before the end of the calendar year. The Broker shall set these exceptional conditions by Publication.
- 6.7. The Broker shall not be liable for the consequences of execution of a re-allocation. The Client shall reimburse the Broker for any damages or costs incurred to the Broker as a result of the execution or non-execution of a re-allocation or which incurred to the Broker otherwise in connection with such a re-allocation or in connection with the fact that such a re-allocation was not executed in accordance with the Business Conditions.
- 6.8. Due to the obligation of the Broker to carry out business cautiously not to endanger the stability of the financial market as well as the Broker's obligation resulting from the legal regulations to prevent money laundering the Broker shall be entitled to refuse the execution of a re-allocation which fails to meet the requirements stated in the Business Conditions and the execution of which could disrupt financial market stability or could be contradictory to legal regulations on prevention of money laundering. The Broker shall be entitled to refuse the Instruction also in the case that funds being part of the Account shall not be sufficient to cover the costs related to the Instruction's execution and the Broker's fee which the Broker is entitled to in accordance with the Business Conditions or the Agreement, or if the Broker is prevented from the Instruction by a fact worthy of special consideration.
- 6.9. In the event that due to unclear legal relations or other reasons the Broker shall have doubts whether the person giving the Instruction shall be entitled to such, the Broker shall be entitled to refuse the Instruction execution until such entitlement shall be proved to the Broker in an acceptable way.
- 6.10. The Broker shall not be liable for damages suffered due to a
- refusal to execute the re-allocation if it was rejected in accordance with the provisions of the Business Conditions,
 - execution of the re-allocation which did not meet the conditions stated in the Business Conditions,
 - failure to execute the re-allocation or partial failure to execute the re-allocation, if its non-execution or partial non-execution was a result of a partial failure of the technical system of any of these entities: Foreign depository, regulated market, multilateral business system, Broker, other person who shall participate or participated in the execution of the Instruction,
 - failure to provide Service or partial provision of Service on condition the failure to provide Service or partial provision of Service happened as a result of even a partial failure of the technical system of any of the person/entity: Foreign depository, regulated market, multilateral business system, Broker, other person which shall participate or participates at provision of the Service.
- 6.11. The Client shall reimburse the Broker for any damage, alleged claim or costs, including costs for legal help which may incur to the Broker, as a result of a wrong Instruction for Re-allocation.
- 6.12. Unless stated otherwise in the Business Conditions, or unless otherwise agreed between the Broker and the Client, the Client shall not be entitled to change or cancel the Instruction for Re-allocation delivered to the Broker.

- 15.5. The Client, that is a consumer as defined in a special regulation, is entitled to withdraw the Agreement in writing within 15 days from the day when the change in the Service Charge List is effective. If the Client does not withdraw the Agreement within the indicated time, then it shall be understood that the Client accepts the change in the Service Charge List. After the withdrawal of the Agreement, the parties thereto shall not return to each other amounts paid prior to the withdrawal of the Agreement. However, either party to the Agreement shall pay to the other party, within 15 days from the day when the withdrawal was delivered to the Broker, all outstanding receivables which arose prior to the withdrawal of the Agreement.
- 15.6. Unless otherwise agreed by the Client and the Broker, the charges are calculated in EUR currency.
- 15.7. Apart from the fee for the Broker in a form of charges, the Client shall be obliged to pay the Broker all incurred expenses and costs related to the provision of service and execution of obligations based on the Agreement. The costs and expenses of the Broker shall not be part of the charges for the Broker unless stipulated otherwise in the Service Charge List or the Agreement.
- 15.8. The Client shall be obliged to, without undue delay upon the Broker's request, to reimburse to the Broker all damage and expenses, including expenses for the Broker's legal representation incurred to the Broker in connection with
 - a) breach of contractual obligation of the Client against the Broker or dispute solution between the Broker and the Client, especially in relation to claim of payable liabilities of the Broker against the Client, or
 - b) court proceedings or out-of-court settlement where the Broker shall participate in connection with the court proceeding or a dispute between the Client and third parties.
- 15.9. The Client shall be obliged to, without undue delay upon the Broker's request, pay the amount of the remaining reasonable costs to the Broker in relation to the Agreement conclusion or performance, provision of services or in connection with financing the Broker's liabilities resulting from the Agreement or Service arising as a result of
 - a) change in the situation on the market,
 - b) in case of a Client, who shall not be a consumer pursuant to a special regulation, additional expenses arising due to changes or adoption of a new legal regulation binding for the Broker related to the Broker or the Service, or as a result of changes in the legal regulation interpretation, if such change or the adoption of a new legal regulation binding for the Broker, change in its interpretation or change in the market occurred after the Agreement conclusion between the Client and the Broker or by the Service provision.
- 15.10. In the event that the Client shall fail to reimburse Charges to the Broker in due time, the Broker shall be entitled to debit such Charge to another account held by the Client or at any movement on the relevant account. If it is not possible to reimburse the receivable of the Broker against the Client using any of the above methods, the Client expressly authorizes the Broker to execute the sale of S/FS or the parts thereof, to cover the outstanding Charge and the Broker shall not be obliged to inform the Client on such procedure, unless agreed otherwise. The Broker shall process the sale of the S/FS at the Broker's discretion with regard to the legitimate interests of the Client.

16. Miscellaneous provisions

- 16.1. The Client declares that all funds used by the Client in connection with provision of the Service are his/her/its property and that he/she/it is doing the Service on his/her/its own account. This declaration is considered true and repeated each time a Service is provided, unless the Client declares otherwise in writing. If the Client does not own the funds which he uses in relation to the Service, then the Client undertakes to deliver to the Broker a written declaration of the owner of the used funds, as well as the consent with its use.
- 16.2. The Broker shall have the right to refuse the Instruction execution and not to provide a Service in case of suspicion of activities pursuant to Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Act as amended. The Broker shall not be responsible for damage caused to the Client by failure to provide the Service or failure to execute the Instruction as a consequence thereof.
- 16.3. If there is a situation on the financial market, substantial for the Service, due to political, economic or other reasons, which the Broker cannot influence and the Broker's execution of the Instruction has become more expensive than in the time when the Agreement was concluded, the Service provided by the Broker or the execution shall become impossible, the Broker shall be entitled to pause or completely stop any Service for the Client.
- 16.4. By signing the Agreement the Client gives his consent that in the event of a change in an offer of the financial instruments as a result of termination or merger of the financial instruments the Broker shall be entitled to replace such financial instruments with other financial instruments with a similar investment strategy. The Broker shall be entitled to replace the financial instruments selected by the Client in the Agreement with other financial instruments also in the event of a termination of cooperation with introducers. The Client gives his consent to the procedure in the events referred to in this point 16.4. and at the same time gives the Broker an instruction.
- 16.5. The Broker shall in the cases referred to in point 16.4. inform the Client of the chosen procedure in writing, whereby the Client shall be entitled to give notice of his disagreement within 30 days from the date of receipt of such notification of the chosen procedure, otherwise the actions of the Broker according to point 16.4. following the elapse of the 30 day period shall become effective. If the Client expresses his disagreement with the procedure in writing in accordance with point 16.4., the Client thereby gives an Instruction to the Broker to sell the financial instruments in question and the Broker shall credit the funds to the Client's account. The Client acknowledges that in this case the Broker shall not be liable for any damages incurred to the Client due to the loss of benefits associated with the Product.
- 16.6. By signing the Agreement the Client expresses his consent with the use of funds and financial instruments entrusted by the Client to the Broker, by the Broker to his own benefit and to the benefit of third parties. By concluding the Agreement, the Client confirms that he was acquainted with the Strategy of Instruction Execution by the Broker and the Strategy of proceeding of the Instructions by the Broker, he has understood them and expresses his/her consent therewith. By concluding the Agreement he shall also express his consent with the joining of an Instruction given to the Broker with Instructions of third parties, with regard to the fact that the Client was informed of a potential negative effect of the joining in relation to the Instruction execution.
- 16.7. The Broker may execute the Client's Instruction outside the regulated market or multilateral business system whereas by concluding the Agreement the Client expresses his consent to the Broker to execute all his Instruction or any of them outside the regulated market or multilateral business system. The Client acknowledges that some S/FS available within the frame of the Product are not intended for the public offer.
- 16.8. The Client shall have no claim for provision of a Service. If a Service was provided to the Client, the Client shall not be therefore entitled for provision of any other Service.
- 16.9. Accounting and other records kept by the Broker in connection with the contractual relationship between the Broker and the Client shall always prevail in case of any discrepancies between the Broker and the Client in relation to all matters it shall affect.
- 16.10. The Broker and the Client have agreed that all legal relationships related to the submission and dealing with claims and complaints by the Client related to the correctness and quality of Services provided by the Broker not expressly regulated in the Business Conditions shall be governed by the Warranty Claim Order which shall be determined by the Broker by means of Publication.
- 16.11. If on the side of the Client as a party to the contractual relationship between the Broker and the Client are several participants, the Client and these persons against the Broker shall be jointly and severally liable, unless the Business Conditions or the Agreement provide for otherwise.
- 16.12. For any arrangement or Agreement between the Client and the Broker concluded in the English language and another language, the English version of the document shall prevail unless stipulated for otherwise in the Agreement. The Slovak version of the Business Conditions shall always prevail.
- 16.13. Unless agreed otherwise between the Broker and the Client, all business relationships shall be governed by the laws of the Slovak Republic.
- 16.14. If any of the provisions of the Business Conditions or of any Agreement between the Client and the Broker become null and void or impossible to enforce, this shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions Business Conditions or of the agreement. In this case, the parties to the agreement undertake to replace the invalid or unenforceable provisions with valid and enforceable provisions whose legal importance and effects will be as close as possible to the provisions to be replaced.
- 16.15. All Agreements, unless agreed between the Broker and the Client otherwise, which were concluded in writing between the Broker and the Client may be amended or supplemented only by written form of amendments and such change must be signed by both parties to the Agreement.
- 16.16. The Broker shall have the right to unilaterally transfer the rights and obligations of the Broker resulting from Business Conditions here as well as from other contractual documentation between the Broker and the Client managed by these Business Conditions to another licensed legal entity established in a Member State of the European Union with similar business activities, at the cost of the Broker, but only provided that the transfer of rights and obligations shall not lessen the Client's protection as a consumer (investor), while at the same time the Client's existing benefits are retained (in particular those relating to tax and fees), which the Broker provided to the Client. The Broker shall inform the Client in writing of any intention of assigning the rights and obligations with induction of date of cession and the Client shall have 30 days from the date of receipt of such notice to give notice of their disagreement, otherwise the cession shall be effective as of that date. If the Client gives notice in writing of their disagreement with the cession of rights and obligations, the contractual relationship between the Broker and the Client may be terminated by the Broker by writing with a one month notice period. In that case the Broker shall not be liable for any damages that may arise to the Client due to the loss of benefits that the Client received by investing through the Broker. The Broker shall be entitled to provide confidential information and the Client's personal data to other licensed legal entities in connection with the cession of the rights and obligations.
- 16.17. The Broker shall be entitled to unilaterally modify and amend the Business Conditions, and if agreed with the Client, individual conditions of the Agreement due to
 - a) changes in legal regulations, or
 - b) development on the financial or capital market which may without prejudice have impact on provision of Service or conditions of its provision, or
 - c) changes in technical possibilities of provision of Service, or
 - d) ensuring cautious business activity of the Broker, or
 - e) better quality and simplification of provision of Service or enhancement of the range of offered Services.The Broker shall determine the current wording of the Business Conditions as well as a relevant change of condition of the Agreement by Publication. The Client may express his disagreement with such a change by a written notice delivered to the Broker within 15 days of the determination of such a change by Publication; in the event that on the part of the Client are several participants, any of them may express his disagreement with such a change. Otherwise, the amendments and supplements take effect on the day specified in them, if, after the Publication of the Business Conditions, or the relevant condition of an Agreement, the Client (i) takes any action in relation to the Broker, or continues (ii) to accept the Services from the Broker in such a way that from that situation it is obvious that he wishes to continue with the existing contractual relationship with the Broker, or (iii) confirms by his actions that he has become familiar with the wording of the amended or supplemented Business Conditions or the relevant condition of an Agreement. If the Client expresses disagreement with such a change within the above time limit and if no agreement is reached, the Client may terminate his contractual relation with the Broker with immediate effect; if on the part of the Client are several participants, then any of them may terminate the contractual relation with the Broker with immediate effect and such termination applies to all participants. Likewise the Broker may terminate its contractual relation with the Client with immediate effect and declare the Broker's receivables from the Client as immediately payable.
- 16.18. The Business Conditions shall remain effective even after the end of the contractual relationship between the Client and the Broker until the complete settlement of their mutual relationship.
- 16.19. The Business Conditions shall take effect on 1st October, 2014. All contractual relations established between the Client and the Broker after the effectivity date of the Business Conditions shall be subject to the Business Conditions, unless otherwise stated in them.
