Invesco Asia Infrastructure Fund: Fund manager change with effect from 22 September 2016

With effect from 22 September 2016, the Luxembourg-domiciled Invesco Asia Infrastructure Fund will be managed by the Invesco Equity Investment Team in Asia, led by Mike Shiao, CIO Asia ex Japan. Previous fund managers Susanta Mazumdar and Ishan Sethi are leaving Invesco and we wish them well for their future endeavors.

The change in fund management is being made to better reflect the team approach and enable better leveraging of the strengths and resources of the Invesco Equity Investment Team in Asia.

The team is comprised of 19 investment professionals with extensive local knowledge and an average of 15 years industry experience.

While there is some overlap between the fund's current holdings and the team's preferred holdings, some turnover is expected post the effective date.

With effect from 22 September 2016

Fund	Invesco Asia Infrastructure Fund
Fund managers prior to the effective date	Susanta Mazumdar (lead) Ishan Sethi (co)
Fund manager post the effective date	Invesco Equity Investment Team in Asia

Important information

The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange-rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. As a large portion of the fund is invested in less developed countries, you should be prepared to accept significantly large fluctuations of the value of the fund. As this fund is invested in a particular sector, you should be prepared to accept greater fluctuations of the value of the fund than for a fund with a broader investment mandate.
